ANTHONY DI IORIO
Founder & CEO of Decentral and Co-Founder of Ethereum

Over the course of three decades, Anthony Di Iorio has launched more than 10 companies and invested tens of millions of dollars in numerous industries, including blockchain. Anthony immediately recognized the paradigm shift from the Age of Computing to the Age of Information and, more recently, to the Age of Value.

In late 2013 Anthony funded & co-founded Ethereum, the decentralized smart contract platform that at its peak hit $150 billion in market cap. Currently, he is the founder and CEO of Decentral Inc., a Toronto-based innovation hub & software development company focused on decentralized technologies. Decentral is the maker of Jaxx Liberty, a digital asset platform that empower millions of people with the tools they need to control their digital lives.

Anthony's entire blockchain and cryptocurrencies investments have earned him a place on the Forbes list of the Richest People In Cryptocurrency.

Well-versed in cryptocurrency, blockchain, finance and business, he is an advisor to a number of companies, and as the inaugural Chief Digital Officer for the TMX Group, the parent company of The Toronto Stock Exchange, he explored ways to make exchanges operate faster and cheaper through blockchain technology.

Anthony has shared his visionary insight with hundreds of thousands of people around the world. Since 2012, he has given numerous lectures, speeches, keynote addresses and interviews, and even hosted over 100 technology events. He was a lecturer at the University of Nicosia's Master's program in Digital Currencies and an Adjunct Professor at the University of Toronto Faculty of Law teaching "Cryptocurrencies, Crypto Ventures and the Future of the Exchange."

In 2018, Anthony further distinguished himself as the winner of the EY Emerging Entrepreneur Of The Year Award, as the winner of the FinTech Leader of the Year Award, and made Toronto Life's list of the 50 Most Influential people in 2018.

In 2019 Anthony stepped down as CEO of Decentral to pursue health and wellness investment and business initiatives and to focus on life & work balance. This shift was short lived and soon after he was called back to run Decentral as his replacement CEO (and girlfriend) became pregnant. They recently welcomed their first child into the world.
