

VERITAS FACT-FINDING SERIES – OCTOBER 14TH, –11:00AM EST

AVI LEVINSON
Vice-President - Royal York Property Management, Inc.

Avi has been involved in the world of real estate since 2010. As the Vice President of sales at Royal York Property Management, Avi is responsible for overseeing the growth of the management portfolio at Royal York. Royal York Property Management specializes in servicing property owners who have anywhere from 1 condo to 25 investment properties and beyond.

The unique value proposition of Royal York is that they have a dedicated tenant placement division and they offer guaranteed rental income to their clients. Since joining Royal York Property Management in 2012, Avi has brought in over 450 new clients and over a quarter of a billion dollars in assets under management.

Prior to getting into the world of real estate, Avi was involved in the non-profit sector as the Vaughan city director for one of the largest Jewish teen organizations in the world. Avi also co-founded NextJEN-The Jewish Enterprise Network where high school and university students can network with successful business leaders with the goal of inspiring them to become community leaders. To date, NextJEN students have raised over $250,000 for charities in the GTA and beyond. NextJEN also successfully ran their own version of Dragon's Den and over $1.2 Million was invested by the dragons into the businesses that were pitched at the event. Dragons and speakers have included Dale Lastman, Michael Serruya, Saul Feldberg, David Cynamon and others. Avi continues to be involved with NextJEN and is also involved in fundraising for mental health initiatives at Sunnybrook Hospital. Avi holds a BA in advanced talmudic studies and a MA in counselling psychology. He lives in Toronto with his wife and five daughters.