KEN CHARBONNEAU
Chair, Auditing and Assurance Standards Board

Ken is the Chair of the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board, which sets standards for quality control, audit, and other assurance and related services engagements and guidance in Canada. Ken has more than 40 years of business experience and prior to his appointment as AASB Chair in April 2018, he provided assurance and advisory services to a broad spectrum of public and private organizations, most notably in the technology, media, and communications sectors. Throughout his career with KPMG, Ken served in several leadership roles, including Business Unit Professional Practice Partner for 15 offices in eastern Canada, leader of the Ottawa audit practice and technology industry group, and Partner-in-Charge at the firm's national marketing and communications group in Toronto. From 1998 to 2000, he was the CFO and a board member of a private software development company.
