

VERITAS FACT-FINDING SERIES – APRIL 28, 2020–11:00AM EST

Richard Lyall
Immediate Past Chair & Director CDAO (Construction Council of Ontario)

Mr. Lyall has represented the residential construction industry in various executive positions since 1991, including as RESCON's Founding President in 2001, Chairman of the CDAO [Construction Design Alliance of Ontario], Board of Advisors for the University of Toronto Tall Building Research Centre and Director of RCCAO [Residential and Civil Alliance of Ontario].

RESCON represents more than 200-high-rise, mid-rise and low-rise home builders across the Greater Toronto Area (GTA). Speaking on behalf of the residential construction industry, the association offers a unique voice to government on building innovation, human resources, health and safety, technical standards, as well as training and education.

Aside from his advocacy efforts, Mr. Lyall is a frequent public speaker domestically and internationally, and writes opinion pieces in various publications. He has been interviewed about the residential construction sector by the Wall Street Journal, The Globe and Mail, CBC Radio's Metro Morning, CBC News Network, Toronto Star, BNN Bloomberg, CTV News Channel, The Canadian Press, TVO's The Agenda, Newstalk 1010, City and Toronto Sun.
