

VERITAS FACT-FINDING SERIES – EPISODE #64
MAY 25th, 2021–11:00AM EST

Tony Gareri
CEO – Roma Moulding

Tony Gareri is the CEO of Roma Moulding, a picture frame manufacturer that remains world-renowned for its iconic design, commitment to craftsmanship and unparalleled customer experiences. Upon being named CEO in March 2011, Tony laid the foundations for a culture shift that would profoundly reframe the way Roma Moulding would do business.

By establishing a clear Mission, Vision and Core Values, Tony constructed a framework for leadership and daily decisions that were focused around the happiness of his team. During the last decade, Roma Moulding has achieved many accolades and has been recognized numerous times as Manufacturer of the Year, Most Admired Company Culture and many more. Tony is a frequent guest on many podcasts in the areas of Business, Leadership, Culture and Employee Happiness. He's also been featured in notable publications such as Forbes, Inc and most recently, The Drive Magazine!

As an ambassador for workplace culture and happiness, Tony's mission is simple:
To help companies build happy winning teams! See more on his website.

His experience leading a transformation within his own company has driven him to consult and speak with organizations across North America. Tony's keynote presentations reveal his passion and belief in building sustainable strategies to cultivate successful, happy, winning workplaces!